Grand Tavern serves it up neighborhood-style

Observer: Tell us about your business, including the types of services and/or products you feature.

GT: We are a new local neighborhood bar and grill. We are a family friendly place that has 15 HD TVs, video games and we will offer Keno after the first of the year. Our menu has a ton of great choices, from black bean and goat cheese quesadilla, chicken tortellini, hamburgers, daily food specials and great drink specials. Happy hour Monday through Friday from 2-6 p.m. and late night happy hour Monday through Thursday from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. Tuesday, kids eat free (one kid per parent). Drink specials every day.

Observer: How did you decide to locate in the Farmington/Farmington Hills community?

GT: Family owns George's Honey Tree in West Bloomfield, which was formally located in Farmington Hills on Orchard Lake Road. We liked the area and knew it was a good location for a local bar and grill. We couldn't ask for better local customers!

Observer: What else would you like for the public to know about your business?

GT: Grand Tavern of Farmington Hills is hosting a benefit to help Brightmoor Community of St. Christine Christian Services provide Christmas for the homeless Dec. 16 from 6-10 p.m. We will be offering a buffet dinner at $9.99 per person, proceeds will go to Brightmoor Community of St. Christine Christian Services.

We will be taking reservations for dinner that night. We hope that you will jump on board to help out these people in a time of need. We will be accepting clothes, canned goods and toys for them Dec. 16 on behalf of Brightmoor Community of St. Christine Christian Services.

We will be raffling various prizes and gifts, with all proceeds going to Brightmoor Community of St. Christine Christian Services.
